LEMON BAY HISTORICAL SOCIETY NEWSLETTER - March 2022

Please mark your calendars for our upcoming programs.

Tuesday, March 22 at 7 pm: Roy Ault, author, "You're Driving Me Crazy"

You may know Roy if you ever took Driver Ed in Englewood. He founded Ault's Driver Education Center several years ago. Roy also is the author of several books from fictional murder mysteries "Murder On Mackinac" to productive manuals on driving "The Definitive Book For Driving School Owners". He wrote a column for over 20 years for the Englewood Sun. Roy's columns have been turned into a book, "Extra! Extra! Roy's Rhetoric."

He has just released a new book which he will talk about and signed copies will be available.

Tuesday, April 26 at 7 pm: Rhoda Clovis, Historic Cypress Gardens

Cypress Gardens, Florida's first theme park. The park originally opened in 1936, had its heyday in the 1950s and 1960s when it became world-famous for its water-ski shows. Rhoda was one of the skiers.

Dues are now due for 2022. Single - $20 and Family - $35.
